Manager's Message

I'm glad as the 6th volume of Annual Newsletter of B.Ed. Department is being released. We take pride in being a reputed centre of quality teacher education in the city. With the introduction of two year B.Ed. programme from the 2015-16 session our responsibility towards this professional course has increased. We have tried to provide the best possible facilities to students for the completion of their course in the most convenient manner. The Newsletter presents the details of all scholastic and co-scholastic activities which were done by our student teachers of B.Ed. 1st year during the session (2015-16) for completion of their course. This will help our stakeholders to explore the further possibilities of improvements in the quality of training programme being provided in our institution. Their comments, opinions and suggestions are always welcome. I wish success and progress to all my student teachers in future.

Principal's Desk

I'm happy with the publication of 6th volume of our Annual Newsletter of B.Ed. department. It is very important to us as it gives a detailed report of the outgoing session (2015-16). This session marked the beginning of "Two Year B.Ed. Programme" implemented by Banaras Hindu University with the intake of one unit of fifty students. The Newsletter presents the picture of all activities done by our student teachers of B.Ed. I for the completion of their course which includes both scholastic and co-scholastic areas. The efforts made by the teacher educators, administration and management for the smooth functioning of the session may be seen in the contents of this Newsletter. The Newsletter will provide feedback as to how far the organized efforts of the institution have been successful in achieving the aims and targets of B.Ed. 1st year under "Two Year B.Ed. Programme." It will give us direction of improvement in the areas where there have been lapses and gaps. I wish success to all my student teachers in their academic pursuits and congratulate the teacher educators for releasing this Newsletter.
